solving your challenges.

relevate talent search

access a national database of talent for a comprehensive search

Instead of posting a job ad and waiting (and waiting), you can take back control of your hiring process with a faster, simpler way to find hires.

relevate match

advanced matching technology to find the best candidate for your job

Our AI-powered talent-matching engine empowers us to deliver best-fit candidates faster than ever before. But you don't lose the trusted human relationship you've built with your Randstad team. That one-to-one relationship is a core part of who we are.

relevate reference

online reference checks to secure talent faster

A well-executed reference is the best screening tool hiring managers have to ensure quality placements and avoid hiring mistakes. With Relevate Reference, you gain the speed and efficiency you need to make the right hires at the right time.

relevate schedule

a workforce planning tool for scheduling across the organization

Relevate Schedule is a versatile, automated solution that streamlines scheduling and reporting processes. That means we can fill and backfill shifts faster and more strategically – saving you time and money.

relevate salary insights

data, insights to help you stay competitive

Randstad has a proven track record when it comes to delivering the insights you need to stay ahead of your competitors. Our real-time salary calculator features hundreds of job titles in dozens of industries for markets across the nation.

relevate HR portal

centralized hub invoicing and ebilling

Today's fast-paced world requires fast-paced solutions for our clients. Our Relevate HR Portal offers direct access to the billing information you need to help keep your books balanced.

bringing people closer to the work they want and employers closer to the talent they need.

Relevate is your integrated single-source technology solution for staffing, workforce planning and talent management. Not all companies will need every service. But there are services for every company.

There is also a full relevete suite for job seekers. Candidates can take online assessments to vet their skills for your jobs and make video recordings that can serve as first interviews. They can create their own personal portal and download the relevete app to keep track of job applications, schedules and more.

let's talk about your challenges.
